MR. BISHOP AND THE POST.

The New York Post published a long letter from Rev. Sereno E. Bishop of Honolulu, in which an attempt was made to justify the revolution on the ground that the Queen had reverted to "heathenish and sorcerous practices." Editorially the Post treats this as a flimsy pretext, saying that the treaty of 1875, an extension of which was negotiated by Secretary Frelinghuysen, "recognized the independence and competency of the Hawaiian monarchy; no objection was made in the treaty on our side to the religion or says that if the Hawaiian Govern- world. - Cleveland Plaindealer, Feb. all that time under treatment by a ment had violated any stipulations of that treaty, the United States "would undoubtedly have been justified in interfering by force, if necessary, to prevent such violation." "Nothing of this kind has happened," says the Post, concluding as Surely we cannot act against a government which we have recognized, without some better justification than vague charges preferred by successful rebels. It is no doubt important to have a coaling-station somewhere about Honolulu, but it is far more important that the United States should, especially in its dealings with weaker Powers, show itself law-abiding. Therefore, there should be no haste in this matter, and President Harrison, besides avoiding even the appearance of haste, should avoid imposing on Mr. Cleveland the execution of a policy initiated by his predecessor, without the sense of responsibility which is always created by having On WEDNESDAY, March 15, 1893, at 12 to carry out one's own plan.

Enthusiasm Not General.

EDITOR BULLETIN:-

The reception given to Captain Wiltse at the Opera House, when considering the enormous amount of danger, hardship and glory attached to the overthrowing of trustful Hawaii, was a very tame affair indeed. Outside of the officers of the American navy and the members of Central Union Church, with some eighty or ninety sympathisers, there were very few present who were in heart curiosity. Others went there to sample the punch and let themselves loose a little. If the Advertiser people would like to see a spontaneous outburst of feeling straight from the heart, let them start a reception and ball against the revolutionary principles of Captain Wiltse. Then the Advertiser people will perhaps un-derstand what honest enthusiasm means. Try it, Mr. Advertiser man, then you will probably see something that will make Captain Wiltse and others heartily ashamed of themselves. If we are to have annexation, let us have it on the square and above board. To the devil with all tricks and sharp practice; it is a morsel that is indigestible with all honest folks.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Slow Progress Last Chance for the Captain Meyer has Trouble with Lawyers

Unreadiness and absenteelsm of lawyers, added to the revolutionary circumstances of the opening time, have made the initial term of the First Circuit Court rather unproductive of results in the despatch of business.

Yesterday the motion of defendants in Dowsett vs. Mankeala and others was argued and submitted. Ella Butler was granted a divorce from Henry Butler this morning on said he had. Upon receiving the the grounds of extreme craelty and habitual drunkenness. Rosa for plaintiff; Ashford for defendant.

Richard Stone was arraigned for perverting justice and pleaded not guilty. Mr. Hartwell appeared for him. Defendant was held in $200 bail to appear next term for trial. He was arrested for shooting and wounding a police man in the Pantheon Saloon, while resisting arrest for joining in a riotous disturbance with several fellow-soldiers from the barracks. Young Hoy and Young Wai, charged with gross cheat, pleaded not guilty and were remanded till Anyhow, the islands are immense. Every prospect pleases, and even the kanaka isn't so vile as he might be, the doctor says. Life can be supported by only the slightest amount of labor. The sky is always sailing. the Pacific cyclone is rare, the air is balmy and there is no word for zero in the native tongue. The people are naturally kind and gentle. Their taste for missionary steak has been eradicated and they love rum better now. The Japanese and Chinese coolies are the human interest in a landscape as fair as that of Capri. Mauna Loa is a nice companionable volcano and doesn't erupt very much. Entertainment at St. Andrew's.

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Andrew's Church Association was held yesterday evening in the schoolroom. After the usual routine business the following program was rendered:

Violin and Piano duett. Reading. Mr. Geo. C. Potter Song with Violin obligato. Misses Burgess and McGrew

All of the numbers were excellently rendered and gave much satisfaction to the large audience present. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served, and the rest of the evening was spent in social conversation. Among those present were officers from both the American and British war vessels. A delight ful time was spent by all.

A Voice from the Old Bay State.

The latest news from Hawaii, that our Minister has declared a United States protectorate over the islands, indicates that Mr. Stevens is a strong annexationist, and intends to push the thing along as fast as possible while he has the chance. We hope that Mr. Stevens has done nothing which the rest of us will regret. It should be distinctly remembered by the administration and others interested that the American people have something to say in this nanexation business. And the people want time to think the matter over without being hurried into any premature or with the object of the reception and ill-considered course of action by a ball. Some were drawn there by lot of spontaneous combustion jugoes. - Springfield (Mass.) Republican,

Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town; From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. always some little handiwork ready to fill the tiny gap of every vacant moment. A needle is familiar to the fingers of them all. A queen, no doubt, plies it on occasion; the woman poet can use it as adroitly as her pen; the woman's eye, that has discovered a new star, turns from its glory to send the polished little instrument gleaning along the hem of her kerchlef, or to darn a casual fray in her dress. And they have greatly the advantage of us in this respect. The shader thread of slik or cotton keeps them united with the small, familiar, gentle interests of life, the continually operating interests of life, the continually operating in-fluences of which do so much for the health of the character, and carry off what would otherwise he a dangerous accumulation of morbid sensibility. A vast deal of human sympathy runs along this electric line, struckling from the throne to the wicker chair of the humblest scanistress, and sceping high and low in a species of communion with their kindred beings."
